The marriage and the wedding ceremony take place within a week of each other. Everything looks like it is going to be fine and the next day both go to their respective homes. Then, after a month of the wedding, Rahul goes missing and Swati must find a way to bring him back. Characters. Rahul is Rahul, the protagonist of this story. He is the oldest of three siblings and a heir to the family empire. His wife is Swati, the sister of a friend who's arranged his marriage. Rahul is a very good looking man. He's smart, polite, and well mannered. In fact, he's so polite that he could easily be mistaken for a fool at times. When he was young, he was naughty, and he was also a slacker. Things changed when he became a teenager and he's matured now. Swati is a beautiful, sweet, smart, friendly, but a little naive woman. She's a homemaker. Swati loves to bake and has a natural talent for it.

She also loves gardening and is good at it as well. Like her brother and husband, she's a very polite woman. She's a very polite woman as well but she's often inconsiderate of others and her behavior can be quite foolish at times. Like Rahul, she's also quite a ditz, even though she's more refined than Rahul. Aadhya is Swati's friend. She's a flight attendant and has a crush on Rahul.

She's the first person to break into Rahul's room and find him when he gets home from work. Aadhya is an aspiring actress who's extremely talented in that field. Ronit is Rahul's boss and he's an honest man. Ronit is the kind of person that women would love to be married to. Ronit doesn't have a girlfriend at the moment, but he does know women. Leela is Rahul's family lawyer. She's quite the gossip, but not a bad gossip. She's actually a very good gossip. She likes to talk and talk and talk. She's not always talking about politics, but she does often talk about the opposite sex. She's a good listener as well. She doesn't have any friends or family to confide in, but she's a good listener. Nalini is Rahul's friend's sister. She's a successful business woman.

She's a very sensible woman. She's also a very good cook, and she 82157476af
